Strollin’ With Stroman

By Dean Stroman

Now is the time to catch that dream bass you have been thinking about all winter long. Fork’s big females will be in shallow water areas either spawning or preparing to spawn. There will be two patterns in March, staging bass and spawning bass. During and after cold fronts when water temperature takes a dip staging bass are your best bet. They will be less affected after cold fronts. Staging bass can be found on main lake points, secondary points, major creek bends and major breaklines closest to shore.

The upper ends warm up first because shallow water warms faster, as does turbid water. Since most bass inhabit shallow water during spring most lures that work in this depth will produce. Lure colors will depend on water clarity and sky conditions.

One thing you can count on is the bite will be excellent one day and have you wondering where all the bass went the next. With the weather changing daily you must be mobile to consistently stay on fish. It can be eighty degrees one day and freezing the next.

Another thing you can count on is the wind. When water temperatures are above fifty-eight degrees, wind becomes an advantage. With colder water conditions it can be a disadvantage. You need to look for areas that are protected from wind.

The following items are compiled from recent Texas Parks and Wildlife Department law enforcement reports.

--Deer in the Head-lights -- Two Tom Green County game wardens saw a vehicle attempt to run down deer in an open field. The game wardens stopped the vehicle and could smell a strong odor of alcohol on the lone subject. Sobriety tests were administered and the subject was arrested for DWI, driving with a suspended license, two local warrants and hunting with illegal means and methods.

--Hunters Ed Would Have Helped -- A Presidio County game warden responded to a nonfatal hunting accident at Penitas Ranch. When he arrived, the game warden learned that the hunter was trying to cross over a fence when his loaded shotgun fell from its rest and discharged, resulting in the injury. Upon further investigation, the Game Warden discovered that the 21-year-old victim had not taken a hunter’s education course, and would have benefited from the course because this very scenario is covered.

--Vodka, You Are My Only Friend -- During routine Sandhill Crane patrol on Christmas Eve morning, a Hockley/Terry/Yoakum County game warden happened across a pickup parked in the paved shoulder of a main highway just inside the Lynn County line. After passing the vehicle, the warden noticed a man slumped over asleep in the driver’s seat. Turning around to make a welfare check, the warden approached the driver side door and attempted to knock on the window to get the man’s attention. After several attempts of hard knocking on the window and saying, “Game Warden” even louder, the man remained passed out. Fearing for the individual’s safety, the game warden began rocking the truck side to side. After several more efforts, the man finally came to. He admitted to driving all night from New Mexico with a cup of vodka and soda to keep him company. With the assistance of the Department of Public Safety, a sobriety test was given, and the subject, who had one previous DWI conviction, was booked into the Lynn County Jail.

--Did I Do That? -- A Garza/Lynn County game warden seized two mule deer does that had been harvested the previous day in Scurry County by a Lubbock area man. Mule deer season had ended in Scurry County, and even then, mule deer does could have only been harvested under permit. The warden met with the hunter who admitted not knowing that mule deer inhabited Scurry County.

--Overkill -- A Taylor County game warden received a call from a landowner who said a neighbor contacted him and said he saw someone with a flashlight on his property. When the warden arrived, two other landowners had the suspect blocked on a county road. The 25-year-old suspect had shot a deer on property that bordered the landowner’s property, and the deer ran onto the landowner’s land. The suspect then proceeded to track the deer approximately 400 yards into the landowner’s property, where he found the wounded deer and again shot it.

--Venison Violator -- A Garza/Lynn County game warden was called by a Garza County ranch foreman regarding a headless whitetailed buck that had been dumped alongside a two-track road inside the ranch. As the warden was responding to the area, the foreman called again and said that he believed it to have been shot by one of the hunting lease holders and that the carcass was no longer at the initial site. The warden arrived on the ranch, and after a short search, found the initial dump site and carcass at a second location. After loading the deer, the warden drove the ranch in search of the hunter, and later found him. The warden spoke with the man, a previous wildlife violator, at the back of the man’s truck. A severed deer head was in the bed of the truck with an incompletely-filled out tag on its antlers. The man was then led to the back of the truck, lowered his tailgate, and revealed a wasted carcass. Without provocation, “Unless you’re making hamburger, do you realize how hard it is to cut up all that meat,” the man asked.

--Bloody Mess -- A Garza/Lynn County game warden was refueling at a Post gas station when he saw a pickup with a large white-tailed deer rack sticking out of the bed, bathed in blood across the hood and down the fenders and bed rails, pass by and immediately turn into a residential area. The warden quickly stopped the pump and followed. The truck eventually circled the block, giving the warden the impression that they wanted to parade the deer back by him. The warden saw the men act disappointed when they returned to not find the game warden, but surprised when they saw him in their rear view mirror. After checking the two men’s licenses, deer, and tag, multiple citations were issued. Afterwards, the warden asked the men why they had splattered and poured blood all over their truck. The men said that they thought it would look cool. The men also got a lesson in hunting ethics.

--Wasted -- The Roscoe chief of police contacted a Nolan County game warden after a dead deer had been propped up against the doors at the Roscoe High School. The warden located the deer and observed a clean, pass-through bullet wound on the 9-point buck. The Roscoe elementary school principal had found the deer earlier that morning and provided the warden with pictures of the deer when he found it. The deer had numerous beer bottles outlining it, a can of Copenhagen on its shoulder, and a cigarette in its mouth. The next day, the warden received information about three subjects involved. During the interview, the suspects said another man on a ranch had killed the deer and given it to the uncle of the one of the subjects. The uncle then gave it to his nephew to process. The nephew had then tried to give the deer to his peers at work. No one had wanted the deer, so the subjects decided to play a prank, and put it at the high school. The subject who originally ended up with the deer still had the tag with him. After advising the subject who had killed the deer of what happened, he was extremely upset that the subjects had wasted the meat.

--Duck, Duck … Cormorant -- A Titus County game warden responded to a trespass call on a large ranch in northern Titus County. When the two hunters from the neighboring ranch were located, they admitted to trespassing and said that they were jumping ducks on the area ponds. One hunter said that they had only shot one duck while trespassing. When the warden asked for the duck, he was told that they did not get the duck because it fell over the high fence inside the deer breeder pens. The bird was recovered from the pens and discovered to be a cormorant. Citations were issued for hunting a protected water-fowl-cormorant, criminal trespass, shooting across property lines, and no hunter safety course.

--Can We Pretend That It Never Happened? -- A Rockwall County game warden checked two duck hunters on their way out of their blind. When asked to provide three shells to check the plug, one of the hunters produced two shells and a marijuana pipe from his pocket. The hunter quickly tried to take the pipe back, but the warden took possession of it. The hunter was cited for possession of drug paraphernalia, and the other hunter was cited for an unplugged shotgun.

--Honesty is the Best Policy -- Two Houston County game wardens received a call about a subject who had shot at a deer from a county road. The wardens drove to the subject’s residence where they were greeted by a young man walking down the road who said to them, “I’m the person you are looking for.”

--Wired Up -- Two Polk County game wardens were patrolling for night hunting violations when they heard a vehicle roll to a stop up the road. The wardens could hear the subjects kill the truck and then one subject walked by their location. Earlier in the evening, the wardens had received a call of spotlighting in a field near their set. Due to rattling and different noises coming from the subjects’ location,

Oklahoma may be O K but when they come to Lake Fork and get knocked off their boat in 45 to 50 mph winds which occurred on Monday February 25th like Tanner Cagle did, they learn a whole new respect for Lake Fork hospitality. Legend Boats, and last but not least “Team Bubba!” Tanner was trying to get to the boat ramp on Hwy. 17 when he went to the front of his Tracker boat in the wind, the boat went one way and he went the other. Thankfully Bubba was the first witness when crossing the 515 West bridge in his truck. Tanner was able to swim back to the ramp, thankfully he had his life jacket on, but the boat went flying in the high winds. A Game warden did arrive on sight in his truck, but the dilemma was how Tanner was going to get his boat. Team Bubba and his Legend to the rescue! Bubba volunteered to go get his boat and retrieve the runaway craft, because the windshields on the boat acted as sails. When Bubba got back and had Tanner in his boat, the tracker was no where to be found. Finally it was found ashore in the back of White Oak Cove. Other than a lot of scrapes and scratches from bumping off the bridge and stumps, the boat was unharmed. Tanner was able to get the boat started and off the shore. Bubba broke the waves in his Legend while Tanner drove in his trough back to the ramp. Other than being wet and cold and a scratched up boat, you can still say he lucked out! When Tanner asked Bubba what he could pay him, Bubba’s response was simple, “Pay It Forward! If you see someone on the water in distress, help them. This doesn’t just apply to Tanner but everyone on the lake should really take this to heart.”

wardens were concerned that the subjects had loaded a deer. After a while, the vehicle started up and the wardens stopped the vehicle up the road only to find the subject was not road hunting but stealing ground wires on utility poles. In addition, the subject had a bag of what appeared to be synthetic marijuana. One subject was apprehended, and wardens turned the subject over to the Polk County Sheriff’s Office.

--Over haul -- A Zapata County Game Warden pulled up on a night set when he observed a vehicle traveling in his direction on FM 2687. The warden hadn’t been on the set long before he saw a vehicle shining a spotlight from the road. When the vehicle approached his location, the warden saw the vehicle towing another vehicle. The two trucks kept spotlighting when they drove past the warden’s position and stopped approximately 75 to 100 yards from his position. Two individuals exited the rear truck and ran over and grabbed a buck they had just shot earlier and threw it in the back of the truck. The two vehicles were stopped shortly after, and all four admitted to road hunting. When asked what the deal was with towing the other vehicle, they said after they shot the deer, they sped off and blew the transmission.

heavy winds. You must change your fishing tactics with the changing weather conditions.

There will be different stages of spawn from one end of the lake to the other. There will be spawning, pre-spawn, and post-spawn bass from the middle to the end of March. One thing you can be sure of is that most bass will be in shallow water and will hit a wide variety of lures. Figuring out what stage most of the bass are in is the key to consistently catching them. Pre- and post-spawn bass will be more aggressive and hit a wide variety of lures. Spinner baits and shallow crank baits are top for these bass. Bass that are thinking more about spawning require a much slower approach. That is where soft plastics are the key to being successful. Slight fishing can also pay off big. By observing their movements you will know what to throw.

I’ll be happy to help make your fishing trip a successful one. Just give me a call at 903-383-7214 (landline), 903-850-5083 (mobile) or email me at dstroman@peoplecom.net plus I still have opening for March and springtime.

Liven Up Family Night With Mango Bacon BBQ Pizza

By Sue Hampton

Fresh, luscious mangos. Savory, crunchy bacon. Salty, creamy cheese. This unique combination of ingredients shies away from traditional pizza toppings and brings an exotic flair with the sweet flavor of mangos. Adding mangos to your typical pizza lineup will send you on a vacation in your kitchen any night of the week.

Mango and Bacon Barbecue Pizza is both crowd-pleasing and easy to make. Ready from start to finish in only 20 minutes, this pizza is a no-brainer for hectic nights.

Not only is it a delicious pizza, it provides a balance of important nutrients. Mangos provide more than 20 essential vitamins and minerals, are an excellent source of vitamins A and C and a good source of fiber. Since mangos are available year-round, you can let them transform family meals from blah to unbelievable any time of year.

2. Sprinkle each crust with half of the cheese, bacon, green onion and mango. Bake for 8 to 10 minutes or until lightly browned around the edges. Let cool slightly, then cut into small wedges.

Here are a few tips about mangos – while exotic in appeal, mangos are available any time of year:

* Color isn’t the best indicator of ripeness. To determine if a mango is ripe, squeeze gently; Store at room temperature. They will continue to ripen, becoming sweeter and softer over several days;
* Once ripe, store mangos in the refrigerator for up to five days; and
* Mangos may be peeled, cubed and placed in an airtight container in the refrigerator for several days or in the freezer for up to six months.

Put more pizzazz in your pizza with mangos and bacon! Enjoy!

Needs Your Help!!!

If you know a family that has a child that meets our criteria, just have them call us.

"Every child deserves a chance to fish!" Children diagnosed or who have experienced a life-threatening illness or accident sometimes do not have that opportunity. Now through the "Wish to Fish Foundation" they can have that day in the sun with their family. Any family with a child between the ages 3 to 18 years of age that has been diagnosed or treated for a life-threatening illness or accident is invited to come fish Lake Fork for any species of fish at NO COST! Lodging, meals, and fishing are provided. This allows the family to spend quality time together fishing without worries or expenses. The outing includes one night lodging, meals, refreshments, snacks, all on a 26' Tritoon Pontoon, accompanied with a 9-1-1 chase boat for any emergency that may occur. All bait and fishing equipment provided. If you are, or know of a family that meets the above criteria, contact us! Help us spread the word, we are here for the children!
