10th Annual Legend of Lake Fork Big Bass Tournament May 16, 17, 18

By Don Hampton

There is going to be one lucky angler to take home a new 2014 Legend bass boat simply because their entry to the 10th Annual Legend of Lake Fork Big Bass Tournament was postmarked or received before April 30th.

Anglers should not be discouraged if they did not get their entries in early. There are still 3 more Legend bass boats to be given away and 7 places paid each hour of this three day tournament. First place each hour with heavy bass will receive $500, second place $400, third place $300, fourth place $200, fifth place $175, sixth place $150 and the first one knocked out of sixth place will receive a $100 gift card or certificate from our sponsors. For the first angler that catches an exact 10-pound bass, that angler will take home a Kubota RTV-X1120, from our sponsors at Alba & Pittsburg Tractor, valued at $17,178.

Anglers do not have to have a Legend boat to participate in the tournament. There will be boats of all makes and models competing in the tournament. For the anglers that miss the early entry you can enter the tournament at tournament headquarters beginning on May 15, 2014. No checks will be accepted at that time. To enter at the tournament headquarters, hours will be Thursday, May 15th from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m., Friday, May 16th from 5 a.m. until 6 a.m. and 4 p.m.

"The Fisherman's Guide News" would like to welcome our newest writer, David Ozio to our staff. With David's expertise and experience of bass fishing we are sure he will bring new insights on catching that Lake Fork lunker of a lifetime.

Marty Snyder and Jackie Albin from Tightwad, Missouri won the Crappie Masters National Qualifier, One Day, One Pole Ultimate Challenge Tournament held on Lake Fork, March 15, with a total 7-fish stringer weight of 15.83-lbs. and winning them 1st Place prize money of $3,200. This was their first time to fish on Lake Fork. Jackie is the inventor of the "Stump Jumper".

What does Bubba dream about?

By: Don Hampton

It wouldn't take a dream expert to analyze Bubba's dreams. For those of us that know him it would not be difficult to guess just what he dreams about.

In his younger years he will admit he dreamed about the "Budweiser Girls and the "Dallas Cheerleaders", but that was before meeting Bubbette the love of his dreams. Now in what he refers to as his "Golden Years", Bubba's dreams consist mainly of drinking Budweiser and fishing 79 miles this side of Dallas.

Now when I refer to Bubba's dreaming, this doesn't mean he is always asleep. This man's daydreams can put Rip VanWinkle to shame. He can be driving his truck or speeding across the lake to get to one of his honey holes and just have a doosie of a dream.

A couple of times, with the fear factor present, I've had to arouse him. When I've asked him where he was at he would reply, "Oh, I was just having a little daydream!"

Bubba has shared some of his dreams with me and believe me that man has a vivid imagination. The best thing about Bubba's dreams though is that no one ever gets hurt and evidently they bring him a lot of enjoyment.

One of his favorites and he insists it might come true because it is a reoccurring dream is that he fishes his way to the Bassmasters and wins.

That is not so far fetched. Many anglers dream of that, but Bubba's dreams go in depth far beyond that point. In his dream he beats everyone in the competition by 20 pounds per day and at the end of the tournament all the pros want his autograph and insist he give them tips on his fishing expertise. I told him I didn't think he would ever be able to do that with a Zebco 33. (I can't tell you what he told me on that one.)

My favorite one he has shared with me is him catching the new world record largemouth bass. He has even seen this one tilt the scales at 28.62 pounds. That is doing some mighty powerful dreaming. In this dream he even picks up sponsors and does television commercials. Can you imagine Bubba doing a Fruit of the Loom commercial? In case this dream does come true I want to be around for this one. Bubba has been practicing the American Express commercial. It doesn't quite sound like any I've ever heard, but who knows we might have to give him credit.

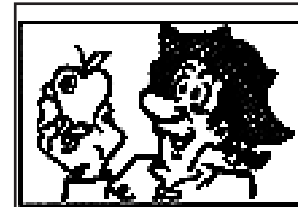

Bubba's version goes like this: "Howdy you all! You and yours probably don't have a clue as to who I are, that's why I carry this here plastic thang! People may not recognize me in my fishing gear at the rib house or at the chicken fried steak place, which's why I carry this thang. Whether on the pond or on a lake, make no mistake, you present this and you can get a rib or steak! Don't leave your shack without it!"

Now if you saw this, wouldn't it just make you want to go out and extend your credit rating.

With all dreams there comes the scary ones and Bubba has a few of those. His consists of wanting to go fishing and not being able to find his boat, not being able to find the lake, Bubbette selling all his fishing stuff at one of her garage sales, and the "Dallas Cheerleaders" and the "Budweiser Girls" all wanting to go fishing with him. (Well okay, maybe not the last one. I just wanted to see what Bubbette would do to him.)

To top all of this off someone made the mistake of sharing with Bubba a superstitious saying. Bubba being a country boy and believing somewhat in superstition isn't taking any chances. This individual told Bubba that if you have a dream and tell it to someone before having breakfast that dream will come true. Now when Bubbette tells him to shut-up and go back to sleep, he gets on the phone to his friends to tell them of fishing the Bassmasters or making an American Express commercial. So, if you meet Bubba, don't give him your telephone number. You just might get a before breakfast call!

Johnny Appleseed (whose real name was Jonathan Chapman) was an American pioneer who planted large numbers of apple trees along the frontier in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries.

The words "alumnus" and "alumna" are the Latin words for "foster son" and "foster daughter." Though used in Great Britain to mean "pupil," in America they describe only graduates of a school or college.

Also on hand will be assorted sizes of TFO Rods anglers can purchase for $50 each with no limit while supplies last.

The tournament will be held on May 16, 17, and 18th hosted by Lake Fork Marina on Highway 17N, 903-765-2764.

Fishing hours for the tournament are from 6 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day of the tournament with the first weigh-in hour being 7 to 8. Trailering is allowed and hourly updates can be heard three times per hour on KMOO 99.9 FM on your radio. The number of anglers per boat is only limited to the weight capacity of the boat. Each person in the boat must be a paid entry. Only three (3) bass can be in the possession of each angler at a time and they must have a means of separating their catch from other angler or anglers in the boat. The official measuring board will be the Chek-It-Stick and bass under the slot cannot touch 16" and fish over the slot must at least touch the 24" mark. Polygraph tests will be given each hour. Once the angler has entered the weigh-in line he or she has committed for that hourly weigh-in and as long as an angler is in a paid hourly position their boat and partners must remain at tournament headquarters until the hour is completed. All anglers must have a current Texas Fishing License in their possession when they come to the weigh-in line. No dead fish will be weighed in. Each boat must be equipped with a throw cushion, working live-well, kill-switch, lights, horn, and current registration. All anglers must wear their Coast Guard approved life vest at all times the large motor is in operation. All protests must be turned in, in writing to tournament staff 15 minutes after the hour in which the infraction occurred. During the tournament all state and local laws apply. All of the day's catches must be released back into the lake by 3:00 p.m. of each day and anglers must be off the water by 8:00 p.m. each day during the course of the tournament.

Anyone wishing to fish the tournament can pick up an entry form at most local businesses around the lake or go to www.legendoflakefork.com and download an entry form and rules. If in the rules and regulations you find you have another question, feel free to call "The Fisherman's Guide News" at 903-383-7748 or mobile 903-360-6994 and ask for Don or Sue.

New Rules Give Landowners Flexibility for Nuisance Alligator Control

Landowners are now able to contract directly with nuisance alligator hunters under new rules adopted by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission.

The new protocol will authorize a permitted control hunter to contract directly with a landowner or landowner's agent (including a political subdivision, governmental entity, or property owner's association) for a fee or other compensation for the removal of nuisance alligators.

By allowing control hunters to contract directly with landowners, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department hopes to simplify the process and allow permittees to retain captured alligators and process or sell them. The new protocol would allow alligators to be released in suitable habitat with the approval of the department and the landowner of the property where the release would take place.

During the past 20 years, once imperiled alligator populations in Texas have rebounded spectacularly. Increased suburban, exurban, and industrial development in an adjacent to coastal counties, particularly along the mid- and upper coast, has resulted in increasing number of nuisance alligator complaints, especially in areas biologically characterized by diminishing or little to no habitat.

Each nuisance alligator control hunter must complete a certification process that includes (1) an application to TPWD, (2) a department administered nuisance alligator control course, (3) a written exam on nuisance alligator control, and (4) a live alligator handling exam. Additionally, an annual permit fee of $252 is required. No one in Texas is excluded from having a valid nuisance control permit issued by TPWD Alligator Program for the capture and release of American alligators, including local animal control officers.

April is heating up on Lake Fork

By David Ozio

What an interesting year for Lake Fork to date. One cold front after another, high pressure, high winds, one would think there is no end in sight. The optimist in me says be patient and look forward to an outstanding April. As of this week, big fish have started to show up in the shallows and beds are being built in some of the warmest pockets as we speak. Water clarity has been an issue for scouting but the trusty shakey head has shown my clients and I that they are there and ready to do their business. Several protected pockets are holding hundreds of nice slot fish and even a few double digit momma's. The large trophy's are harder to see as they hold off to the side of the bed but if you stare long enough, you will see the tail move giving away the position of the fish of a lifetime.

The trick to locating these groups of spawning fish is water temp. If you can locate some 60 degree water that has maintained that temp for several days, odds are the fish are there. We were down south recently scouring through a north bank pocket and saw a huge slot that was locked onto the bed. Searching the rest of the area turned up nothing. It won't be long and that area will be busting at the seams with fish wanting to "get 'er done". They always bed last on the south end of the lake but they are much easier to see due to significantly clearer water conditions. It is also very time consuming to search out groups of spawning fish but the time spent will allow you to have these fish to yourself once they show themselves. Also, pay attention to big stumps in the shallow areas. I have seen many a giant bedding right next to these stumps or up against laydowns.

The April full moon should usher in the largest wave of spawning females as they missed their window in March due to cold water temps. Mid lake pockets should start to light up with the sandy light spots near the shorelines. The trick now will be to catch them. I have heard of a zillion ways to bag these critters but the fish has to be somewhat willing to participate if you plan to boat a personal best off the beds. Simplicity is sometimes far better. First of all, you need to be able to see the bait in the water as the fish studies the offering or potential threat to his nest. Bright colors work exceptionally well like white Texas rigged lizards, merthiolate trick worms rigged wacky style, or a white craw worm with red pinchers rigged on a shakey head. You can get as elaborate as you like based upon your definition of fun. I have heard of anglers using jointed hard bodied swimbaits to lure these giants into biting. They would work them slowly until it reached the bed and then let it fall into the sandy spot. Hmmm! I've never tried that. Sounds interesting. Personally, I think a drop shot works incredibly well us-

"The Moon Report"

April Crappie Fun on Fork!

By Terri Moon

Darn the cold fronts!!! Just as things are getting good – here comes another one! It's amazing how critical water temperatures are this time of year. Just the difference between 58 and 61 degrees can make or break your catch. But, once those temps stabilize back up to the 60's – it will be "GAME ON!" It looks like April is going to be "the month" this year!

The frequent fronts in March has kept water temps about 10 degrees below where they normally run. They've been holding in the mid to upper 50's. On a good day with no wind, the backs of the coves might reach the low to mid 60's so look for the warmest water you can find and target it.

The crappie have been showing up anywhere between 8 and 15 ft. But, early morning and early evening they could move in as shallow as 1 to 5 ft. In the deeper water I'm tight lining a single 1/16 oz. jig one to three cranks off the bottom. In shallow water, I'm going to a slip-bobber set one to six feet and targeting around stumps and at the edges of the grass – jigs or minnows or both – depends on what they want that day because this time of year, the patterns tend to change daily!

We're also throwing road-runners with Bobby Garland's "blue ice" or "electric chicken" and also Lake Fork Tackle's "blue and pearl" live baby shad and "golden shiner." Cast these shallow and reel just fast enough to keep it off the bottom. Or, for those of you who enjoy a "jigging rod" – please look up ProAnglerTackle.com and check out their 6-1/2 to 14 ft. crappie rods. These are perfect for working those stumps when the crappie are holding tight to cover. These are very light sensitive rods with enough backbone for our Lake Fork slabs!!

Want to send thanks to all the parents and grandparents who took the time to bring the kids out for a day of fishing. I still appreciate the fishing trips I had with my grandparents. They are memories of a lifetime!

Once again, I hope you all will consider releasing those "Monster Crappie" 16" and over so they can keep growing. It would be

Toyota Texas Bass Classic Brings Texas Sized Entertainment to Lake Fork May 9-11, 2014

The Toyota Texas Bass Classic (TTBC) is returning to Lake Fork in a big way. The Sabine River Authority in Quitman will again host this world-class bass fishing tournament and outdoor country music festival. We are proud to announce our exceptional entertainment this year, featuring country super stars, Pat Green, Little Big Town, and Justin Moore.

"The anticipation and excitement for the Toyota Texas Bass Classic is off the charts this year. TTBC will be bringing premiere country music artists, as well as the world's best anglers to Lake Fork. We hope to break records on and off the water" said Tournament Director Lenny Francoeur. "Not only do we have family friendly ticket prices, but the sale of tickets will help us in our ongoing effort to support the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department."

Single day, general admission tickets are available for $15 in advance (or $25 at the gate). That ticket includes parking and kids 17 and under get in free with a ticketed adult. Pat Green will be kicking off Friday's country music concert and Little Big Town will take the stage on Saturday, May 10. Rounding out the event's entertainment will be Justin Moore, Sunday, May 11. In addition to the headlining entertainment artists, the TTBC will also feature a variety of regional bands including Tyler and the Tribe, Southern Slang, Backroad Anthem, and Sister C. Tickets are available now at www.ToyotaTexasBassClassic.com, your local Toyota dealerships, Academy Sports + Outdoors, and Brookshire's.

A three-time Grammy nominee, Pat Green has become a cultural force across the country selling out venues from Nokia Theater in Times Square to the Houston Astrodome in Texas. Green's explosive live shows have made him a fan favorite and a hot ticket, landing tours with the likes of Willie Nelson and Dave Matthews Band. Named "the Springsteen of the South West" in People Magazine, Green has sold over 2 million albums, released a collection of hits at country radio and has been praised in Esquire, Blender, Billboard and USA Today.

Critically acclaimed country group, Little Big Town--consisting of members Karen Fairchild, Phillip Sweet, Kimberly Schlapman and Jimi Westbrook--first entered the music scene over 13 years ago with hits such as "Boondocks," "Bring It On Home," "Good As Gone" and Grammy-nominated

The quartet's fifth studio album Tornado was released on September 11, 2012 and debuted at the top of the Billboard Country Chart where it stayed in the #1 position for five consecutive weeks. The album recently received platinum certification with sales of over 1 million copies. Tornado, produced by Jay Joyce, includes 2x platinum-selling #1 hit single "Pontoon" and follow-up single and title-track "Tornado" which also peaked in the #1 position. The Grammy-nominated track, "Your Side of the Bed" and current single "Sober" are also featured on the album. Little Big Town is currently working on a new album, which is expected for release later this year. The first single off of the new record entitled "Day Drinking" should hit country radio in late spring.

For a second consecutive time, Justin Moore debuted at #1 on the Billboard Country Albums Chart and #2 on the all-genre chart with OFF THE BEATEN PATH. The project has already produced Justin's fourth #1, "Point At You," and current Top 25-and-rising single "Lettin' The Night Roll," which has sold over 120,000 downloads. ## Migrate to a Texas State Park This April and Go Birding Grab your family and friends this April and go birding as spring migration begins throughout your favorite Texas State Parks.

From the beaches of the Gulf Coast to the mountains of Big Bend, each region of the state offers a unique birding experience with more than 630 bird species statewide. More than a dozen Texas State Parks have been designated as having the "best birding blinds" that offer prime perches for viewing and photographing our feathered friends. Some parks that made the list include Abilene, Blanco, Brazos, Devils Sinkhole, Falcon, Fort Parker, Franklin Mountains, Goliad, Lake Mineral Wells, Palo Duro Canyon, Pedernales Falls and San Angelo.

Birding is easy for families and friends of all ages and levels of expertise. A one-of-a-kind birding experience for beginning and advanced birders alike awaits at the World Birding Center (WBC) headquarters at Bentsen-Rio Grande Valley State Park in Mission. Bentsen is one of three Rio Grande Valley state parks that double as WBC sites. At Bentsen, visitors can hike or ride bicycles to see a dazzling variety of birds, many of which visit from Mexico and points further south. Bird feeding and watering stations and photo blinds throughout the park, as well as a two-story hawk watch tower, provide excellent birding opportunities.

Beginning birders can download an Introduction to Birding (PDF) to learn what to look and listen for in their favorite state park. Even people who are new to birding can have fun spotting easily identifiable species, like northern cardinals, green jays, great kiskadees, painted buntings, roseate spoonbills and brown pelicans.

This year marks the 18th annual Great Texas Birding Classic being held from April 15 to May 15. The Birding classic follows the Great Texas Wildlife Trail, a set of driving maps to wildlife viewing sites throughout the state, and these maps include the Great Texas Coastal Birding Trail, the nation's first trail of its kind.

Lake Fork Carp & Buffalo Challenge

The Third Annual Lake Fork Carp & Buffalo Challenge sponsored by the Lake Fork Sportsman's Association and Wild Carp Companies of Baldwinsville, New York was held February 27, 28 and March 1 and 2. Thirty Four teams took to the banks of Lake Fork for a 70 hour fishing marathon. The weather had its extremes with temperatures ranging from the 20's to the 70's.

Lake Fork is home to Common and Mirror Carp that have been known to grow in excess of 40 pounds and Smallmouth Buffalo that are known to grow in excess of 80 pounds. Due to fallen timber and standing trees, the Lake Fork Carp & Buffalo Challenge is a real test to its competitors. The venue proved to be an exciting challenge to all competitors as they strived to capture champion Carp and Smallmouth Buffalo.

The Lake Fork Carp & Buffalo Challenge is an international event. Teams came to Rains and Wood County from Europe, The United Kingdom and all over the US. These teams spent from 8 days to more than 2 weeks in our area. They stayed in motels, ate in restaurants and shopped in retail businesses. The economic impact for this tournament will be in the thousands of dollars. The Romanian team of Mihai Acui and Bogdan Bucur reported the first catch of the tournament with a 47 pound 1 ounce small mouth buffalo. From that point on the catches came from all areas around the lake.

On Saturday Mario Damian, from southern California, set a new lake record for Small Mouth Buffalo with a 68 pound 7 ounce catch. This was Mario's second Lake Fork record having caught a 50 plus pound buffalo in 2012. The anglers were competing for a guaranteed $25,000 in prizes and money.

The Big Winners were the following: Big Carp/Big Buffalo

1st Place 88 pound 8 ounces Mario Damian & Miguel Ruiz $4,000

"Pack of Knowledge" Spawn Fishing for the Non-Sight Fisherman

By Tom Redington

With such a cold winter and spring, a very large number of the bass on Lake Fork will spawn this April. Sight fishing is sometimes the most effective way to catch numbers of big bass, especially when the winds are light and a big wave of females move onto beds. However, I'm often asked if good bass can still be caught by techniques other than sight fishing in the spring. For those of you who don't care for sight fishing, have trouble seeing bass on beds, or face windy and cloudy conditions, take heart. Following are three patterns for catching springtime bass without sight fishing—muddy water, deeper water, and windy flats—and these techniques produce some of Fork's largest bass each year.

If water temps are in the 60s or warmer, stained to muddy water is typically the first area I will try, especially if it is sunny and calm. Bass will be spawning in these areas but are often overlooked because sight fishermen cannot see them. Perpetually muddy areas, typically the upper ends of the lake and the very back ends of the largest creeks, have the muddiest water. In addition, banks that receive the brunt of strong winds for several days or the backs of creeks after big rains are two locations in normally clearer areas that can also contain muddy water. Catching spring bass in muddy water is usually pretty simple. Bass will be holding shallow, especially around hard cover like stumps, laydowns, and docks. Shallow submerged and emergent vegetation will also hold them, with holes in the grass being the key areas. Even the tiniest of sticks often holds a big fish and bass typically won't move far to chase a bait, so fish thoroughly by making repeated casts to every piece of cover near the bank. I pitch black neon or blue bruiser colored Lake Fork Flip-pers, Hyper Sticks, and Craw Tubes with a ¼ oz sinker, Texas rigged. Normally, you'll only feel a little pressure or see your line move off on bigger fish. If your bait feels any lighter or heavier than ¼ oz, let her have it! The Dobyns Champion Extreme DX745C pitching rod is great for this set up because it is ultra-sensitive to feel the light bites, yet it is very well balanced so I can pitch this powerful rod all day and not get worn out. If the fish are active, the thump and tail action of a bladed jig with a Live Magic Shad trailer will catch lots of big ones, as has been proven repeatedly on the FLW and BASS tours this year.

While fishing very shallow works well in muddy water, fishing slightly deeper works better for lunkers in clearer water. In most areas of Fork, it's hard to see bass on beds in water deeper than 4' to 6'. Fishing slightly deeper in the 6' to 12' zone (approximately 2 casts off the shoreline in most areas) will give you access to big, unpres-sured bass. Many females stage in slightly deeper water before spawning in 2' to 4' and I've seen bass on beds as deep as 10' on Fork; therefore, 6' to 12' is the magic depth in most areas. Premier structures in the 6' to 12' depth range include creek channels running through spawning flats, ledges along the edge of flats, and points near the mouth of spawning flats. In addition to catching

Athens Eggfest 2014 Set for April 12 at TFFC

The fourth annual Athens Eggfest is scheduled for Saturday, April 12, at the Texas Freshwater Fisheries Center (TFFC).

The event will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Cooking will end at 3 p.m. Tasting will continue until all the food is gone.

Regular admission to TFFC will be charged. Those who preregister will be allowed to taste for a $5 donation to the Friends of the Texas Freshwater Fisheries Center.

Persons who do not preregister can still taste by making a $10 donation to the Friends of the Texas Freshwater Fisheries Center at the event entrance.

Both cooks and tasters may preregister at <http://athenseggfest.wordpress.com/>. There is no fee to cook.

This year's Eggfest will feature guest cook Tyron Smith, known to Dallas Cowboys fans as Number

77. The TFFC Eggfest can be thought of as an ultimate tailgate cookout. Dozens of Eggheads will fire up Big Green Eggs and bake, smoke, grill and serve everything from breakfast casseroles to pork bellies to wild game to blueberry muffins to pig candy. It will all be cooked on the iconic ceramic cookers, and samples will be available for tasting.

The theme for this year's Athens Eggfest is "Grillin' and Chillin'." An Eggfest is not a cooking competition, it's a tasting frenzy accompanied by cooking instruction. Food will be coming off the Eggs all day long, starting with breakfast-type items in the morning and progressing to heartier foods as the day goes on. While tasting, you can learn how to cook on a ceramic cooker yourself.

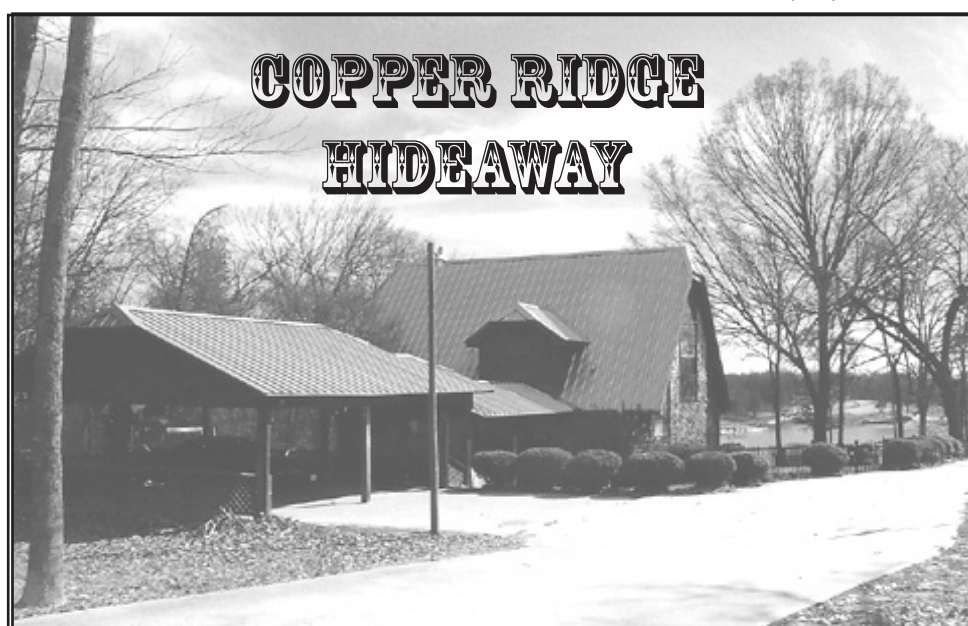

"The basic idea behind the Eggfest is to get people outdoors, and what better way to do that than by offering them delicious food," said Allen Forshage, TFFC director. "And while they are here, we hope they will take time to fish in our ponds, walk our Wetlands Trail and learn about the role TFFC and TPWD play in keeping fishing great in Texas."

Demo eggs used at this event will be available for purchase at the end of the day. Click on the link above to reserve a once-used ceramic cooker prior to the event.

The Athens Eggfest is sponsored by Morrison Supply, Paragon Distributing, Brookshire's Food and Pharmacy, Friends of TFFC and First State Bank-Athens.

For more information on visiting TFFC, visit www.tpwd.texas.gov/tffc or call (903) 676-2277.

April is heating up on Lake Fork (Continued from Page 6-A)

ing a Zoom fluke to drive the bass to her wits end.

All this being said, maybe you're not a good sight fisherman so let's target these pre and post spawning goliaths with a swimbait, spinnerbait or a light chatterbait. Perch imitations always work well and are usually the pegs that are empty at all the tackle stores this time of year. Tackle warehouse will always have everything you need and plenty in stock. This is also my favorite time to use weightless flukes and senko's in watermelon candy red. I witnessed a guy catch a 9.25 recently on this very bait midway back in a small pocket. If none of the above is your wheelhouse, back out to a secondary point or even a main lake point and chunk a Carolina rig or Texas Rig. There are multiple baits that you can use starting with the lizard. That is a never fail lure. Baby brush hogs, flukes and Zoom centipedes will also cause the rod to load up if all are fished from 3 to 8 ft. It's always good if wood is present and don't be afraid to run these offerings right next to anything that looks fishy. The cold water temps have caused a many of people to be disappointed with March but I think April will redeem all prior failures. Be persistent and this will increase your chances of a glorious wall hanger.

If you are headed out to Lake Fork in April searching for the trophy of a lifetime, I would love to be a part of this trophy quest. I still have a few dates open in April and some in May. I also have gift certificates available if you have friends or loved one's who have dreamt of landing a huge bass. I run a Skeeter FX with a Yamaha 250SHO and would like to thank Skeeter for making my office on the lake the best in the country. I would also like to thank G-Loomis, Shimano and Lowrance for making my job the blast that it is. A special shout out to H&W Marine in Tyler for all their help in keeping me staging fish, you can also catch deep bedding fish that others can't see, so deeper sections of spawning flats are a key location too. A lightweight Carolina rig, with an 18" leader and a ¼ oz weight on 20 lb fluorocarbon line is the perfect option for these bass. Tip your Carolina rig with a green pumpkin or watermelon colored Hyper Stick, or Magic Shad and you'll be set. The light weight keeps you in contact with your bait, yet you still get the awesome dying fall of your favorite soft plastic lures that is so successful in the spring. Make long casts because spring bass are wary, especially the big ones. The 7'8" Dobyns Extreme DX784C works very well with this rig because it'll make long casts with the small sinker and still has plenty of feel and power for long distance work. For areas with lots of grass or heavy timber, pitching a 3/8 oz MPack jig in green pumpkin/black or watermelon with a matching Fork Craw into the thickest cover will produce some real toads.

tively before and after spawning on the nastiest of days. Big shallow flats with lots of grass are my favorite areas. For late prespawn and spawning fish, soft plastic jerkbaits are my top option. Magic Shads, Live Magic Shads and Hyper Sticks rigged weightless Texas style and dead-sticked are deadly. If the bass are shy of these bigger baits, a wacky rigged Hyper Finesse Worm will produce when nothing else works. Again, long casts help catch more of these spooky fish so I rig these up on the 7'3" Dobyns Champion 733C rod and it loads up perfectly with weightless soft plastics.

If sight fishing isn't your strength, give muddy water, deeper water, or windy flats a try and you'll catch lots of big bass this spring.
